Are you a future leader? Join a firm deeply rooted in Saskatchewan, where lawyers will be dedicated to teaching, mentoring, and developing you to become a future colleague. McKercher LLP has the sophistication, variety, and quality of work you would expect from a larger firm, combined with a people-first culture that values camaraderie and work-life balance, complemented by competitive compensation.

HOW YOUR FUTURE TAKES SHAPE:

- Broad exposure to a variety of challenging and interesting legal assignments that will help you make informed decisions about your long-term career path.
- Meaningful opportunities to contribute, paired with the mentorship, feedback, and guidance needed to help you grow.
- Direct access to partners and associates, with opportunities to learn from and work alongside experienced practitioners.
- Networking, professional development, and firm events that help you build connections and grow your professional network.

YOU'LL THRIVE IF YOU ARE:

- Committed to working hard and taking an active role in shaping your future.
- Aligned with our core values of integrity, excellence, respect, collaboration, and dedication.
- Academically strong, curious, and committed to continuous learning.
- Professional, collaborative, with sound judgment and a focus on building strong relationships.
