

FAMILY LAW SASKATCHEWAN

... providing honest, focused & experienced solutions to Saskatchewan families.

Kate is a lawyer in the Saskatoon office and practices exclusively in the area of family law, including assisting clients with division of family property, child and spousal support, parenting matters and divorce. Kate completed her Bachelor of Business Administration at Simon Fraser University in 2005. She attended the University of Saskatchewan and received her Bachelor of Laws in 2009. Kate joined McKercher LLP in 2020 as a senior associate in the Family Law group.

Kate has successfully appeared as counsel in all levels of court in Saskatchewan including Provincial Court, Court of Queen's Bench, and the Court of Appeal. Although Kate has extensive litigation experience, she is also focused on assisting clients in reaching out-of-court settlements, including through the negotiation and preparation of prenuptial, cohabitation and separation agreements.

Samantha is lawyer in the Saskatoon office. She practices primarily in the area of family law, and also has experience in health law. Samantha completed her Bachelor of Arts Honours in Psychology (with High Honours) in 2011. She went on to attend the University of Saskatchewan College of Law, receiving her Juris Doctor (with Distinction) in 2014. Samantha articulated with McKercher LLP in 2014 and joined the firm as an associate in 2015.

Samantha handles matters relating to divorce, parenting, child support, spousal support, family property division, and Interspousal Agreements including Pre-Nuptial Agreements, Separation Agreements, and Cohabitation Agreements. She has appeared successfully before the Court of Queen's Bench for Saskatchewan. Samantha believes very strongly in alternative dispute resolution which results in satisfactory settlements as an alternative to the emotionally-charged and costly adversarial Court process. Samantha proudly offers clients a variety of alternative dispute resolution options. She is a certified Collaborative lawyer and a trained mediator.

Zina is a lawyer in the Regina office and maintains a general practice with a focus on civil litigation, insurance law, health law, child protection, and family law. Zina obtained her Juris Doctor with Distinction from the University of Saskatchewan in 2017. She articulated with McKercher LLP in 2017 and joined the firm as an associate in 2018.

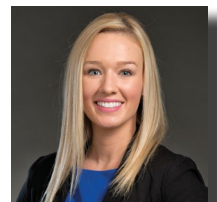

As a member of the firm's Family Law Practice Group, Zina has experience assisting clients with separation agreements, cohabitation agreements, parenting agreements, custody, child support, spousal support, division of family property, and divorce. Zina has supported clients in resolving family law matters both in Court and outside of Court.

Roxanne is a litigator in the Firm's Regina office. She practices primarily in the areas of family law and insurance. Roxanne has appeared before all levels of Court in Saskatchewan, including the Court of Appeal. Roxanne joins McKercher from another firm in Regina after more than six years of practice.

As a member of the Firm's Family Law Practice Group, Roxanne has experience in relation to all aspects of family disputes and litigation. She handles matters including parenting, child support, spousal support, and division of family property.
